NASHVILLE DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	)

v.	)	Case No. 3:11-00069
	)	JUDGE CAMPBELL
JONATHAN WASHINGTON	)

ORDER

This matter came before the court on a Petition seeking revocation of the defendant's supervised release. The defendant<sup>has</sup> been released on certain conditions since August 2, 2012 pending a hearing on the petition. The defendant has obtained and maintained full-time employment during that time. The domestic assault charge that was the basis for the pending Petition has been retired. As a condition of his release, the defendant has attended approximately 14 weeks of a 26-week domestic violence treatment program. The defendant has stated his consent to a modification of the conditions of his supervised release to require that he complete that domestic violence treatment program. Based upon the defendant's consent to the modification of the conditions of his supervised release, the United States is willing to dismiss the Petition. Based upon the defendant's consent, the Court finds that the conditions of the defendant's supervised release should be modified to require that the defendant complete the domestic violence treatment program that he has been attending as a condition of his release. With this modification and with the consent of the United States, the pending Petition seeking revocation of the defendant's supervised release is dismissed.

It is so ORDERED.

ENTERED this the 22 day of February, 2013.
